

Rewarding Science

June 24th, 2015 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Auditorium Bruno Touschek
Laboratori Nazionali Frascati - INFN

Frascati National Laboratories organize the first edition of a workshop dedicated to the young researchers whose PhD theses have been awarded by INFN scientific committees. It is an opportunity for these young scientists to illustrate their work to their colleagues. All different INFN scientific areas will be covered.
